

11th Annual Meeting

This year the NEAPMS is planning to slightly modify our program to include more content on Monday afternoon and a shortened day on the last day of our conference. We will start off with an aquatic macrophyte identification workshop on Monday afternoon. C. Barre Hellquist will be putting on a 2-hour workshop on the Potamogetonaceae, including a slideshow and live and pressed specimens for viewing. Recertification credits will be available for the workshop participants. Following the hands-on workshop, Barre will be giving a talk on his work in Australia from 5pm to 6pm. Rounding out Monday's activities will be the Presidential Reception from 7-9pm where a light buffet and cash bar will be provided. Tuesday's program includes a line up of technical presentations on various aspects of aquatic plants and their management, similar to past years. Thanks to Ken Wagner we will be offering an algal identification workshop late in the afternoon, which will also coincide with our poster presentations. Tuesday wraps up with the Annual Awards Banquet and some home grown entertainment (an aquatic plant game show, of course). On Wednesday morning we will continue with technical presentations through the morning, ending our meeting with a luncheon from noon to 1pm.

Your conference registration includes the Monday program activities and the Presidential reception; breakfast, lunch and coffee breaks on Tuesday and Wednesday; and hors d'oeuvres and the dinner banquet on Tuesday evening.
